

Davis Travelaires Presents

The Presidio of San Francisco Tuesday, April 3, 2018

Tour Inclusions:

- All West Transportation
- Craig Smith Guided Tour
- Lunch at the Presidio Golf Club
- Driver & All Gratuities

Spend the day with Professional Guide, Craig Smith exploring the newest, and largest (within a city) National Park in the World! 1500 acres! Start off with a visit to the newly and beautifully renovated Officer's Club; see the oldest structure in San Francisco, an archeological site of Spanish and Mexican history, the Presidio Heritage Gallery and Museum and learn of General "Black Jack" Pershing's tragic loss of his family in 1915. You'll also see Disney Lucas Art Studio and a walk to see the Sculptures to San Francisco history of Film & Television Pioneers and the Fountain of Yoda. The landscaping is by the late Lawrence Halprin of San Francisco and boasts 17 acres of flowing streams, boulders, a lake and spectacular views. Lunch today is at the Presidio Golf Club Café (see reverse for full menu). Afterward, stop at Inspiration Point/Immigration Point, drive by Historic Officer's Row House, Parade Ground and the Disney Family Museum. Finish the day with a visit to Fort Point which stood guard at the harrows of the Golden Gate Bridge for over 150 years. Depart the Target parking lot in Davis and 8:00 am and return at approximately 5:00 pm.
