Day 3 - Friday, November 23

This morning it's a festive start to the holiday season with the Macy's Parade. Welcoming Santa to town, the parade route runs directly in front of the hotel. See giant balloons towering above, festive floats, costumed characters and local marching bands. Afterward, visit Seattle Center, home to Chihuly Garden and Glass. This spectacular exhibit provides a look at the inspiration and influences that formed the career of artist Dale Chihuly. See the Exhibition Hall that contains eight galleries and three Drawing Walls and a suspended 1,400 piece, 100-foot long sculpture. The garden is a backdrop for four monumental pieces of superb artwork that interplays Chihuly's work with nature. Afterward, visit Pike's Market, Seattle's original farmers market, established in 1907. The evening is free to do as you wish. The Nordstrom flagship store is located just three blocks from the Fairmont and is pleased to deliver your packages to the hotel.

Day 4 - Saturday, November 24

Travel to Everett today for a tour of the Boeing's Future of Flight Factory, the largest building in the world by volume. On this tour, witness the behind-the-scenes production of the 747, 767, 777 and the newest most advanced plane, the 787 Dreamliner. Watch as the airplane's wings, tail and engine come together for a recognized end product. The knowledgeable guide relates fascinating trivia, such as the fact that actual clouds formed inside this massive factory when it was being construction because there was no ventilation. Return to the hotel to spend your evening however you choose in this beautiful city.
